

HAUGEN AT CLINTON
TALKS TO A THROG

CROWDS OF ROCK COUNTY PEOPLE HEAR HIM.

Even Voters From Across the State Line are Attracted—Farmers Listen With Great Interest to What He Says About Barley and Its Depreciation.

CLINTON, Oct. 20.—Congressman Haugen opened the republican campaign in Clinton last night, and had an audience that packed the city hall. People poured in from Beloit, Sharon, Bradford, Turtle and other neighboring towns, and a number of Scandinavian voters from across the state line in Illinois came up to listen to the arguments of the Wisconsin congressman.

Mr. Haugen said in opening that he felt that in a sense he belonged somewhat to Rock county as his parents formerly lived here, and much of his boyhood was spent here. He said that in coming across the country from the east, he could not help but notice the fine country and the prosperous looking farms. But he believed that in spite of all the natural advantages the people had felt that everything was not exactly right for the past fifteen or eighteen months.

He then went into a discussion of the situation throughout the country, and the tariff issue, the one issue that would not down like other issues that arise from time to time. Barley he dwelt upon especially.

RAILROAD MEN INDICTED.

Bills Against Santa Fe Officials for Violating Interstate Commerce Law.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The federal grand jury returned six indictments yesterday against officials and ex-officials of the Santa Fe railroad for alleged violations of the interstate commerce law. The indictments are the result of the investigation by the interstate commerce commission of the charge that the books of the company show that millions of dollars were paid in rebates to shippers within the last four years. When the indictments were returned in the United States District court the utmost secrecy was maintained as to the names of the indicted. District Attorney Dixon refused to give any information and Attorney Shields, who conducted the investigation for the commission, said the names of the men would not be made public until they had been arrested. The warrants were not issued until today. "It would not be proper for me to say anything about the result of the investigation," said Mr. Shields. "It has resulted in a number of indictments, and we have strong evidence to sustain them. The indicted men, or some of them, were officials of the company. Their names will not be made public until the warrants have been served."

The grand jury returned in all eleven indictments, four of them in cases growing out of the railroad strikes. The cases were all of minor importance. The jury was discharged from further service. Three of the indicted are: Joseph W. Reinhart, ex-president of the Santa Fe; Nelson Morris, packer; Henry, an official of the Santa Fe, who resigned two weeks ago.

Schofield, commanding the army, in which is a recommendation that the enlisted strength of the army be increased to 30,000, so as to give a maximum of $25,000 as to the regimental fighting force. This maximum is only about two thirds of the minimum organization prescribed by the revised statutes for cavalry, artillery and infantry regiments, yet it will enable the government to reorganize its artillery into seven regiments for coast defense and field artillery and its infantry into three battalion regiments without interfering with the strength of the cavalry.

ROB A TEXAS TRAIN
BUT PROFIT LITTLE

BOLD RAID OF FOUR UNMASKED BANDITS.

West Bound Passenger Train on the Texas and Pacific Road Is Held Up Near Gordon, Texas, But the Robbers Secure Little Money—How the Deed Was Done.

GORDON, Texas, Oct. 20.—No. 3, west bound passenger train on the Texas & Pacific, due at Gordon at 12:13 p. m., and about on time, was robbed by four men yesterday a few minutes before noon, three miles west of Gordon.

The safe in the Pacific express car contained the money in transit for Thurbur, with which the Texas Pacific Coal company was to pay its employees today. The robbers, having captured the section gang, flagged the train and forced B. L. Locksby, section foreman, to enter the express car and knock off the combination of the safe, but even then failed to open it and succeeded in making but a light haul. No one was hurt. The express messenger thinks the robbery could have been prevented if one or two of the passengers had been armed with shotguns and had resisted.

The robbers were medium sized, well dressed, and left toward the south. There was no pursuit. The point at which the train was stopped is just at the foot of the Clayton mountains, two miles east of the place at which an east bound train was robbed a few years ago.

WEATHERFORD, Texas, Oct. 20.—The amount secured by the train robbers, it is estimated, runs anywhere between $500 and $5,000. Suspicious characters have been seen for the last month or so in that section and the express company was prepared for the attack, as it had on the train one of its special combination safes, to which no agent along the route knew the combination. The passengers and mail cars were not molested by the robbers.

After the robbery was committed the four robbers walked away toward the mountains, whistling, going in a southerly direction. The Texas and Pacific Coal company of Thurbur has offered $500 reward for the capture of the robbers. It is considered one of the boldest train robberies recorded in the country for a long time. It is thought the robbers are from the Indian territory and are now on their way back. Poses are out after them, and there is some hope of capturing them.

STRIKERS PUT TO ROUT.

Trouble All Caused by Men Outside the Mineworkers' Union.

These men were not of the Mineworkers' order, but blacklisted fellows, and adds to the claim of the mineworker leaders that the fight is none of theirs. The outlook now is favorable for an early ending of the trouble.

THE CZAR IS DYING
AN INCH AT A TIME

CHANGES INDICATE THAT THE END IS NEAR.

Imperial Family Have Given Up Hope—Politics and Business in St. Petersburg at a Standstill—All Await the Result—Cable News from the Old World.

St. PETERSBURG, Oct. 20.—It is announced here that the condition of the czar is desperate. There seems to be no longer any reasonable doubt that he is rapidly approaching his end. A dispatch received here from Livadia announced that the condition of the czar has changed for the worse rapidly and the imperial family is described as being alarmed at the present condition of the sick man.

A special dispatch received subsequently from Livadia says that the czar last evening suffered from a sudden spasm of the heart which compelled him to lie down. His condition became so critical that his confessor, Father Yanischew, was hastily summoned.

It is reported here that an imperial edict will be published on Monday next intrusting the regency to czarowitz, Gen. Count Vorontsoff-Dachoff, aid-de-camp of the emperor and minister of the imperial house; K. P. THE QUANTICO SUSPECT.

Falls to Satisfactorily Explain His Recent Travels.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20.—Charles Morganfield, the suspected Quantico train robber now under arrest here, was notified at the hospital yesterday that it was not necessary to amputate his broken leg. This gave him the greatest satisfaction and he consented to talk. He said he was a gambler and spent his summers in the north and his winters in the south. Being asked how he came to break his leg boarding a freight train he said he had come from Pittsburg on a freight train and had got off at Winton place. He then tried to board another and was hurt. He denied having been recently in Cumberland, Md., but on being asked how he got a pill box with the name of a Cumberland druggist, he said he might have passed through Cumberland. He is still under charge of the police.

DUN QUOTES SMALL GAINS.

Distribution of Goods to Consumers Go on Fairly But Prices Weaken.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Cotton below 6 cents and wheat below 55 cents, each lower than ever since present classifications were known. Export of gold instead of products at such prices in October, are the salient features in business this week. Distribution of goods to consumers goes on fairly, with gains at nearly all points in comparison with last year, but not yet at a rate to sustain the present volume of manufacturing production, so that prices weaken a little. The domestic trade reported by railroad earnings in October is 3.4 per cent less than last year, and 13.4 per cent less than in 1892. The payments through the principal clearing houses for the third week of October are 2.3 per cent greater than last year, but 31.5 per cent less than in 1892. The daily average for the month is 5.6 per cent larger than last year, but 28.2 smaller than in 1892. With many features of encouragement business has not yet reached expectations, and it is evident that the loss of part of the corn crop and the unnaturally low prices of other great staples effect the buying power of millions.

"Wheat for October delivery fell to 54.12 cents Wednesday, and in spite of some recovery the average for October thus far is two cents below the lowest monthly average ever made, which was in September, and was nearly 10 cents below the lowest prior to this year, the October average being 50 cents below that of October, 1891 or 1890. Western receipts are only 4,700,391 bushels for the week, against 6,064,330 last year, and Atlantic ports 631,084 bushels, against 893,343 last year, but the controlling factor is that no demand as yet promises to clear away the enormous surplus. Corn declined 1/4 cent during the week with receipts not a quarter of last year and exports not a tenth. Pork products were small and weaker, with lard a quarter cent lower. Cotton sold at 5.94 cents Thursday, and with Ellison's estimate that the world will consume 8,248,000 bales of American, the stock of 2,000,000 bales in sight, and the estimated yield of over 9,000,000 bales deter buyers.

"With this heavy increase in purchases and a decrease in sales of products abroad the market for foreign exchange is in a position to be quickly affected by withdrawals of capital or apprehensions regarding the future peace of Europe. It appears that three trust companies here now hold over $40,000,000 idle money and that eastern mill loans are being taken from New York by New England banks, while the northwestern demand for money is usually small. The treasury is again falling backward in reserve and large imports yield a little less revenue than last year, while internal revenue for the last three weeks is $1,600,000 smaller than a year ago.

"The iron and steel business makes a better showing this week. There is a good demand for sheets, and some good bridge contracts are reported. The Pennsylvania railroad reports its material account 50 per cent less than that of last year up to date.

"During the last week the failures have been 253 in the United States, against 341 last year, and forty-three in Canada, against twenty-nine last year."

GOES TO JOIN HIS WIFE.

Dr. Conklin's Abduction Story Is Commonly Believed.

CASSOPOLIS, Mich., Oct. 20.—One of the most remarkable things in connection with the return of Dr. Conklin, after an absence of weeks, is the fact that his story of abduction, travel, change of captors, release and all is almost universally believed here, where he always bore a good reputation. The abduction, if abduction it was, stands out as far as the public knows, as one of the craziest of schemes. That Conklin has had hard usage is certain. His good clothes are gone, his mustache is gone, he is sunburned and weather beaten, and most of all, he is haggard and careworn. He talks freely, earnestly and with apparent honesty. His wife, mourning him as dead, had moved to Manchester, where Dr. Conklin joined her yesterday.

ANOTHER BRUTAL OHIO NEGRO

Is Identified by the Victim, Who Has Slightly Recovered.

NEWARK, Ohio, Oct. 20.—A negro came to the home of Mrs. Catherine Niebling, a widow, aged 53, in the outskirts of the city yesterday afternoon, stepped in the door and asked the time of day. She turned from her ironing to look at the clock. The negro knocked her insensible, tied her hands, and gagged her with strips of clothing that she had been ironing, outraged her, threw her into the cellar, and disappeared. Half an hour later she recovered, crawled to a neighbor's, and gave the alarm. She is badly hurt. The police immediately arrested Sam Magruder and his brother and Ben Ward, a stranger who boarded with them. Mrs. Niebling identified Ward as her assailant. He is in jail heavily guarded. The excitement is intense, but there are no apprehensions of an attempt at lynching.

HE SINGS PRAISES OF MAJOR UPHAM

JANESVILLE FURNITURE MAKER LIVED IN MARSHFIELD

He Was Employed For Three Years In the Upham Factory and Says Workmen Are Better Treated There Than In Any Town In Northern Wisconsin.

Three years in Major W. H. Upham's employ makes Louis Segwell competent to speak with authority on Marshfield affairs. Mr. Segwell is now a resident of Janesville, and is in the employ of the Hanson Furniture Company. He is enthusiastic over Major Upham, and says there is no man in the state who is better liked by his employees. Mr. Segwell emphatically contradicts the statement of Gustav Plath, published in the Recorder of yesterday morning.

The favorite charge of democrats has been that Major Upham's men could not get cash on pay day, but were forced to accept trade checks on the Upham store. Mr. Segwell denied this point blank and positively.

Could Always Get Cash.

"Could you get cash at the end of the month if you preferred it to coupons?" he was asked.

"Yes, sir. We got money whenever we wanted it. I have never been forced or solicited to take scrip or coupon books from the company for wages due me and I do not believe that any other employee has. I have always been able to get cash from the company if it was due me, and I believe that every other employee has been able to do the same."

"Supposing you did take coupons, were prices any higher in the Upham store than in any other place?"

"No, sir. I have traded more or less at the Upham store and I have never found any difference in the purchasing power of scrip, coupon books or cash and I do not believe there has ever been any difference. I believe that the goods sold at the store of the Upham Manufacturing Company are just as good as are sold at other stores in the city and that prices are just as low. I have traded at other stores in Marshfield, whenever I wanted to. I have never been forced to trade at the Upham store, and I do not believe any other employee has. The charge that employees who paid in scrip were charged more for goods at the Upham store is a lie."

Upham Store Was a Benefit.

"Would the men have been better off if the Upham company had not run a store?"

"No, sir. I don't think they would have been as well off. The store facilities were not good in Marshfield—they are not in any of those lumber towns—and the Upham concern was really a necessity. It was a great accommodation to the employees."

"Were the Upham forces as well treated as other employees?"

"Yes, sir; I think much better. I never heard any complaints from the Upham employees on account of treatment. On the other hand, all the employees were well pleased and satisfied."

"How about the wages paid by the Upham company as compared to the wages paid by other companies for like work?"

"I was a shaper, and received $2.50 a day. The wages were in like proportion among all the company's help, and I believe the scale was the highest in the state, if not in the whole country. No other company that I know of paid as high wages as the Upham company. For one thing the Upham Manufacturing Company was never sued by an employee for wages, and never has there been a strike of employees."

PAIN-RACKED BONES PLACED IN A COFFIN

Every Joint In His Body Was Solidified By Articular Rheumatism and Chalky Deposits Found in the Brain—Unconsciousness Gave Relief for Three Days.

J. C. King groaned away his life at the Hotel Myers last night. For two weeks he had been packed about his head to allay the raging pain, and even the bed sheet had been held up from his body on supports lest it might touch him and cause paroxysms of agony.

Articular rheumatism or arthritis was the disease that caused this fearful suffering. Twenty years ago Mr. King had his first attack. Since then the disease has made itself felt at long intervals but each time more severely. When taken sick here two weeks ago he telegraphed for his wife at once. It took her four days to get here and during all that time the hotel people cared for him most tenderly.

Mr. King's sufferings were fearful. A chalky deposit formed in every joint, swelling the joints until it seemed as if the skin would burst. After this swelling began the slightest touch on the bed covering caused him to scream with pain. The shifting of bed linen brought torture more exquisite than Spanish rack or inquisitorial boot ever inflicted. It was mercy that stupor preceded death by three days, and dulled the agony. This unconsciousness is supposed to have been caused by chalky deposits around the nerve centers in the brain.

Mrs. King was at the bed side of her husband constantly during the last week. Yesterday afternoon he became conscious for a moment and recognized her but could not speak. His uncle, Edward King of Chicago, and one of his most intimate friends from New York were also at the bedside as the sufferer opened his eyes. All last night Mr. King sank and at 5:30 this morning he passed away. This evening his body will be sent for burial to Hartford, Conn., although the family of late years has been in New York. Mr. King being traveling representative for a New York glove house.

"Death was really a blessing to the poor man," said Dr. E. F. Woods this morning. "It was only a question of a few years before his joints would have become solid and he in reality an ossified man. The case was a remarkable one; but it has a parallel in Janesville today, although the victim has passed the painful stage and has become almost without the power to move a joint."

ROCK PRAIRIE'S RUSSIAN RIVAL.

Farmers on Rock Prairie are interested in the news that a vessel loaded with 117,000 bushels of Russian barley left the port of Odessa, Russia, for Milwaukee on the 26th of September. It was bought for a Milwaukee commission house, and will cost, including cost, insurance, freight and the import duty, delivered in New York, forty-eight cents a bushel. The reduction of the duty from thirty cents a bushel to thirty per cent ad valorem duty, or about ten cents a bushel, by the recent democratic congress, has made this shipment possible.

HOW ABOUT INTEREST MONEY?

The Beloit Free Press Wants to Know About Senator Vilas.

If wrong for a state treasurer not to turn interest on state funds into the state treasury, the Beloit Free Press wants to know how it is right for a bank corporation to receive on permanent deposit $50,000 of state funds and not pay interest on the same to the state. The supreme court decided the first wrong. Is there any reason why the latter is not also wrong, even though the money is on deposit in Senator Vilas's bank at Madison? Think it over, and see if the state is kept out of its own in the one case as much as in the other.

The students from here that are attending Beloit college, were home over Sunday. Mrs. Lucy Parmley of Evansville, is visiting friends here. The Chautauque Circle met at the home of William Ross on last Tuesday evening. The Footville cornet band will meet this week on Saturday night with Bert Silverthorn for rehearsal. President Whitford, the faculty and male students were very much surprised as they assembled in the chapel Friday morning to see a new carpet on the rostrum, five handsome chairs, and a fine curtain for the window, bearing a placard which read, "Presented to Milton College by the Iduna Lyceum." It was a genuine surprise to everybody, except the young ladies of the lyceum, and was a gift that is highly appreciated by the friends of the institution. A. C. Dunn and wife of Minneapolis arrived in town Wednesday to visit their parents, Rev. E. M. Dunn and wife. They are just finishing a journey of eight thousand miles. Miss Lucy Clark was at Fort Atkinson Tuesday to inspect the W. R. C. of that city. W. H. Lane is making some noticeable improvements on his residence.

How a Democrat Looks at 'Em.

Madison Democrat: Probably the most scoundrelly, disreputable and dirty campaign in progress in America today is that instituted and now being carried on by the moral lepers who control the democratic machine in Wisconsin—but, after all, they go well with the disgraced roster gang. The two elements dovetail well together.

TWO PARTIES FUSE AFTER CONFERENCE

COUNTY PROHIBITIONISTS AND POPULISTS UNITE.

Six Cold Water Leaders Walk Across a Room and Confer With Themselves as People's Party Leaders—After this the Union Is Arranged Easily.

The prohibitionists of the Third Rock county assembly district have fused with the populists and have endorsed the populist candidate for the assembly. The district is composed of the city of Janesville, the towns of Edgerton and Fulton, and the city of Edgerton. The leaders of the prohibition party took active part, in bringing about the fusion. George J. Kellogg of Rock, J. C. Plumb of Milton, John Stockman of Harmony, J. H. Haviland, James Cleland, Charles Sexton, all veterans in the prohibition party, were present and active in the work. Many of them belonged in other assembly districts but they went ahead calmly with their deliberations, determined to make no mistakes. The idea of fusing with the populists and sweeping the district like a whirlwind struck the convention with force. After the prohibition leaders had spoken it was decided to consult the populist leaders. J. H. Haviland, Charles Sexton, James Cleland, John Stockman, J. C. Plumb, and George J. Kellogg had already spoken as prohibitionists and were now called upon as populists. It was found that as populists they fully endorsed all they had said as prohibitionists and were unanimously in favor of a fusion provided the populist candidate was endorsed. This proviso they, as prohibitionists, quickly agreed to, and J. H. Haviland was declared the candidate. A committee consisting of two from each party was appointed to secure the required number of names to place the nomination on the official ballot. On this committee James Cleland and J. H. Haviland will represent the prohibition party and J. H. Haviland and James Cleland the populists.

Lima United Brethren Entertainment.

LIMA, Oct. 19—The entertainment last Tuesday evening given by the United Brethren church and society was well attended and special mention could be made of some, but as the speakers and singers all remembered their parts well, we will only say it was a success socially and financially to the society. Mr. Reese's little daughter is under the doctor's care. E. Barker of Sparta, Wis., Mrs. M. E. Jacobs of Baraboo, Mrs. Burhans of Elkhorn, and G. T. Barker of Millard, were all called here last Wednesday by the serious illness of their brother, Elijah Barker, who is very low with typhoid fever. Frank Freeman is also very sick. Mrs. Hiram Jones went to Milton Wednesday for a few days' visit with friends. T. Richards and family are moving two miles east of the village, onto his farm, and Mr. Liesman, who has worked the place the last three years, moves east of Whitewater.

Persons From North Johnstown.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, Oct. 19—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Sweet—a son. Mrs. Harris is visiting her sister in Whitewater. Will House, of Genesee, visited his sister, Mrs. O. W. Bettett, the first of the week. The ladies' aid society and supper at the church last Wednesday evening was a success financially. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goodyear have moved into C. W. Bullock's house, and will work the farm the coming year. Mrs. Kieth, Mrs. Loveless and Rose Callison, who have been visiting in Whitewater the past week, returned home Wednesday.

E. HALL,

SLAVERY AT THE COAL MINE.

One of Its Worst Features Found in the System of Store Orders.

One of the grievances of the striking miners in the central bituminous region of Pennsylvania is the "store order" abuse, says the Philadelphia Record. A great many years ago, when an obstinate strike was made in this region of the state, the miners demanded as a condition of industrial peace that the store order system should be abolished. To this operators were constrained to assent, and for a considerable time the wages of the miners were paid in cash instead of with orders for store goods. But the abuse has been revived since the decision of the supreme court of Pennsylvania that the acts of assembly for its suppression were in violation of the right of contract. So the miners must patiently submit to be plundered by this store order system, or else strike against it, as the operators seem determined to cling to this profitable abuse until compelled to abandon it. In the development of this inquiry many operators farm out to second parties the privilege of keeping store at their mines. In compensation, the operators receive a certain percentage of the profits of the store business. This percentage, every dollar of it, comes out of the honest earnings of the poor miners, as the privileged dealers who have the monopoly of trade at the mines mark up the prices of their goods high enough to cover it. But whether the operators farm out the store order business or run it themselves, the effect of the system is to covertly defraud the miners of a portion of their wages. It filches the bread from the mouths of their wives and children.

Whatever may be the merits of conflict between the operators and the miners in regard to wages, the miners are clearly in the right in their demand that the store order system be abolished. One of the features of this system is to fix the payment of wages at long intervals, in order to compel the miners to resort to the store. But let the miners insist on the payment of wages in cash, so that they may buy their necessities of living where they please, and on the best terms. Workingmen who are subjected to the demoralizing influence of this store order system are little better than slaves.

Son Christopher.

Professor Royce, of Harvard, has oftentimes need of all his philosophy, writes Walter C. Nichols in Kate Field's Washington, to bear with his little son Christopher, who distinguished himself some three years ago by turning the hose on the late James Russell Lowell. About two weeks ago, Christopher was left alone in the house, and when a friend of his mother's came up the steps, he answered the doorbell. "Ah, good afternoon, Christopher," said Mrs. X—, "and is your dear mother at home?" "No," curtly replied the boy. "Well," returned Mrs. X—, "will you kindly remember to say to her that Mrs. X— called?" Christopher eyed her sharply, and then answered slowly: "I don't know. There are so many things she would rather have me remember and that I would rather remember, that on the whole I don't think I will!" And he did not!

In the Streets of Glasgow.

Elizabeth Wright and May Murphy, 12 and 13 years of age, were convicted at Glasgow southern police court of having been drunk and incapable, riotous and disorderly in Bedford street. One of them, it was mentioned, was so drunk that she had to be carried to the office. Captain Donald said little girls were to be seen rolling about the streets dead drunk in that locality every Saturday evening. The prosecution gave the accused no apparent concern. They seemed to regard it as good fun, and Police Judge Martin said they evidently thought they were in a circus instead of a police court.

NOTES AND NOTIONS.

Brussels makes 10,000 hats daily.

A North Carolina dog has been taught to track turtles.

A leading New York throat specialist says that "the best chest protector is worn on the sole of the foot."

A Florida jury recently escaped from the jury room by night and serenaded the judge, the lawyers, the plaintiff and defendant before they were recaptured.

A recent state paper published in Berlin shows that Germany can in ten days after an order to mobilize the forces is given, place 2,500,000 soldiers in the field. There is treasure to the amount of $30,000,000 stored away in gold, for the purpose of conducting the early stages of a campaign on a cash basis.

In Berlin, for some reason, bicycles are thoroughly out of favor with the populace in general and the police in particular. There are plenty of bicyclists, but they have to fix a third wheel to their machines in order to dodge the police regulations regarding a two-wheeled machine. The third wheel is small and is only used to get around the city ordinance against bicycles.

NATIONAL SENATES.

Good Chance for Purgatory.

Someone observed that a man's disposition depended on the fit of his shoes, and if the same were true of the ladies, we would be living in purgatory. This sage is evidently "on o his j b" and realizes that where the ladies wear our hand sewed line of home made $5 shoes that we are making a special sale of at $3.50, they become the lovely, admirable creatures God intended them to be.

Clothing Opening a Success.

Today was J. Weisend's grand opening as every one could see by the banner displayed and the preparations made to receive customers. It has been one of the busiest days of Mr. Weisend's life, and from present prospects will continue to be during the evening. Big preparations were made for this day, and many a bundle of fine clothing was carried away by happy customers of his house. The people know who keeps the bargains in clothing, hence J. Weisend's success.

"A Trip to Chinatown" Well Received.

The biggest house of the season greeted "A Trip to Chinatown" last night. Hoyt's crisp farce comedy was presented very acceptably, the only weakness being in the vocal talent of the company. Frank Lane as "Welland Strong—a man with one foot in the grave," and Gerald Griffin as "Ben Gay" did very good character work, and were warmly applauded.

His Words Were True.

The first thing Rosenfeld, the clothier, said this morning when he awoke from his peaceful slumbers was:

"I feel that I will have a big trade today and sell several overcoats."

His words have proved true. The best day's business of the season is the way it has figured. Rosey's clothing is a great "taker" this season.

"A Remarkable Saturday."

"We thought this would be a quiet day, it is so warm," said Ed. Smith, manager of Ziegler's clothing house, "but it has been just the reverse. We could scarcely wait on the customers. It seemed as if everybody wanted a suit or overcoat to-day."

BIG SUNDAY'S WORK FOR Y. M. C. A. MEN

Nearly $5,000 Spent By the Association In the Last Year and Another $1,500 By the Board of Directors—Two Janesville Men Named As Directors.

Sunday night will end the Y. M. C. A. state convention, and a fruitful Sunday it should be. Earnest work will be done from morning until night. There will be a consecration meeting at 9 a. m.; Y. M. C. A. addresses in four churches at 10:30; a men's mass meeting in the opera house, a women's meeting in the Baptist church and a boys' meeting in the First M. E. church at 3 p. m.; union young people's meeting in the Congregational chapel at 6:30 p. m., and union service in the Congregational church at 7:30 p. m. The last will be a grand rally of all the forces.

Much important work was done by the convention to-day. The report of the committee on recommendations was that T. E. Anderson be retained as state secretary; that H. W. Kellogg be made assistant secretary; that A. Terry and T. B. Thompson be given charge of the important work of the association among the lumbermen; that greater stress be laid upon district work; that local associations be urged to secure buildings at once and to keep debts paid up to date without fail; that college students be impressed with the importance of college Y. M. C. A. work and be urged to give it the intensity that is shown in the secular affairs of college life; that the "week of prayer" in Wisconsin be rigidly observed; that while the educational and physical work of the association must not suffer the spiritual must always occupy the place of chief importance, and that $5,000 be raised for the work of the state association during the coming year.

Two Janesville Men Are Directors.

Directors were elected as follows: C. M. Blackman, Whitewater; A. V. Bishop, Milwaukee; C. B. Willis, Milwaukee; J. Johnson, Lake Geneva; C. T. Johnson, Stoughton; C. J. Winton, Wausau; J. M. Whitehead, Janesville; W. B. Greenwood, Chippewa Falls; H. J. Cunningham. The last two are for two years, to fill vacancies. The others serve three years.

Treasurer A. V. Bishop reported a cash balance on hand of $264.81 and a balance of cash and other assets over liabilities of $276.86. The association receipts since last October were reported at $4485.64. Besides this the board of directors had received $1864.89 and expended $1473.73.

C. B. Willis made a substantial move toward getting pledges for the $5,000 needed in 1895 and it was decided to make another effort Sunday.

The afternoon session was devoted to a consideration of college work. C. K. Ober, of New York, had charge. The formal programme for tonight and Sunday follows:

Saturday Morning—Devotional exercises, L. E. Macomber, Marinette; report of treasurer of state association, A. V. Bishop, Milwaukee; report of committee on recommendations; bible study, J. R. Pratt.

Sunday Morning—Meeting for personal blessing, G. H. Timmings, Eau Claire; church services.

Sunday Afternoon, 3 p. m.—Men's Meeting, J. R. Pratt; boys meeting, A. E. Milenz, Milwaukee; women's meeting, E. L. Leouard, La Crosse.

Sunday Evening 6:30 p. m.—Young People's meeting, F. D. Hopkins, Wausau; 7:30 p. m., union platform service.

Reception to the Delegates.

At the close of the services last evening a reception was given the delegates at the parlors of the Baptist church by the members of the Local Union of the Young People's society of Christian Endeavor and Epworth Leagues of the several evangelical churches of the city. Fully six hundred ladies and gentlemen were present and refreshments were served to about four hundred. The Third Ward Mandolin club was present and gave several selections. The principal address of the evening was by Rev. Frederick D. Evans of Milwaukee, on "The Bible the Young Man's Best Friend."

For tomorrow morning these pulpit assignments have been made:

Baptist—C. B. Willis of Milwaukee, Presbyterian—C. K. Ober of Chicago, Alfred Terry of Chippewa Falls. First Methodist—J. R. Pratt of Milwaukee.

Congregational—H. T. Pitkin, Field Secretary of Students' Volunteer Movement, G. H. Timmings of Eau Claire. Young People's Union Meeting—F. D. Hopkins of Wausau.

Men's Meeting 3 p. m.—J. R. Pratt.

We Name the Prices.

We have one barrel of sweet cider, fresh yesterday, 20 cents a gallon. All home made candles 10 cents a pound every day in the week. Pickles fifteen cents a gallon. Flower of Japan tea, 50 cents a pound. Monarch Japan tea 40 cents a pound. Our 25 cent Japan tea has no equal in the city, even at 35 cents a pound. Armour's breakfast bacon 12½ cents a pound. Funeral of William Conroy.

SCOTS SURPRISE IN LA PRAIRIE.

Seventy of Them Take Possession and Pass a Right Merry Evening.

Andrew Scott was given a genuine Scotch surprise last evening at 8 o'clock when between sixty and seventy people marched into his La Prairie home. His yard was filled with teams, for many had come for miles to assist in the pleasant surprise party. Mr. Scott was not aware of their coming until the party entered his home. Smith's orchestra was present, and furnished music for Scotch reels and other dances. The dancing was interspersed with Scotch stories and Scotch songs. A sumptuous supper was served, and it was in "the wee sma' hours ayeant the twal" when the party bade their host good night.

SWEET AUTUMN.

O, you glorious tints, on the opposite banks With thy shadows so perfect below; One feels like kneeling and giving thanks For one glance of beauty and glow. Richest yellow, vivid reds, golden, green and brown. Soon alike in ashes gray, you will lie; No one can then detect the color once renowned. Of thy beautiful shades; thou art doomed to die.

But how brilliant is thy last array; How graceful every twig and limb. We sigh, and wish that you might stay Until sweet autumn comes again. Now and then rich red leaves fall Into the shivering flowing river, And are tossed about until tired, all Are finally washed away forever.

Like "baby robins" as they leave the nest, Able and strong they fly far away, Out in the world to mix with the rest, Thinking of nothing but song and play; But they fall at last, like the leaves to the ground; Yet the nest and the tree remain still sound, Though the branches look barren and long.

And so with God's children it is just the same; We bud, we blossom, we grow. And we scatter "life" and leave our name, Then we "fall" to the ground below. But the spirit, the nest, the tree still live Though shorn of this beautiful bloom; And to heaven and to the world they give More life, more leaves, more gloom.

HYZER WILL NOT RUN SO ZINCK IS NAMED

ATTORNEY REFUSES TO LEAD A FORLORN HOPE.

He Says the Democratic Managers Misquoted Him and that He Told Them Plainly Yesterday He Would Not Be a Candidate Under Any Circumstances.

Professor J. C. Zinck wins and E. M. Hyzer is not the democratic assembly candidate.

You could hear the thud all over West Milwaukee street when Mr. Hyzer met the democratic committee this morning.

Mr. Hyzer was mad. The committee started the report early yesterday afternoon that he would accept the assembly nomination. Mr. Hyzer read it in the Gazette last night and heard later that the same report was being used to swing the caucuses against Professor Zinck. The managers were bound to snow under the German candidate, and they let him get but one ward—the Fifth.

Mr. Hyzer got the managers up in a corner about 10 o'clock this forenoon.

"I told you yesterday that I would not accept the nomination," said he. "I meant it more than ever now. Do you hear?"

They heard. After "laying out" Professor Zinck most effectually and making every German democrat rage they were now obliged to retrace their steps.

Doings of the Convention.

Richard Valentine called the convention to order at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, when William Smith was chosen chairman and Hugh M. Joyce secretary. J. B. McLean nominated Professor John C. Zinck. There was a period of silence. When broken it was by the voice of E. B. Wixom, who moved that Mr. Zinck be nominated by acclamation. This carried, about half the delegates responding in the affirmative—none in the negative.

Mr. Zinck was introduced to the convention, returning his thanks very feelingly for the honor bestowed, and then started to say something about the tariff, but concluded to cut his speech short.

The Janesville Delegates.

Last night's caucuses sent un-instructed delegates except in the Fifth ward where Professor Zinck's name was endorsed. The other delegations were chosen to support E. M. Hyzer or whoever the bosses should decide upon.

First Ward—Chairman, J. P. Baker; secretary, E. O. Smith; delegates, Martin Dunn, C. E. Rose, Harry Garbutt and Frank Baines.

Fourth Ward—Chairman, C. C. McLean; secretary, M. F. Birmingham; delegates, Fred Kothman, Isaac Connors, P. J. Mout and C. C. McLean. Clarence L. Clark was elected a delegate but he declined to serve and C. C. McLean was elected in his place.

Fifth Ward—Chairman, Hugh M. Joyce; secretary, J. M. Leashey; delegates, J. B. McLean, Hugh M. Joyce, M. J. Dougherty and J. M. Leashey.

A special meeting of the Federation of Labor will be held at Central Assembly hall Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

An Ample Fund of Pleasure and Health
May be derived from an ocean voyage and foreign travel. But before one gets one's "sea legs" on, as the sailor says, the abominable qualms, begotten of sea sickness, have usually to be gotten over. Delicate people suffer, of course, more than the robust from this ailment, but few sea travelers escape it. Against the frightful nausea it produces, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a reliable defence, and is so esteemed by tourists, commercial travelers, yachtsmen and mariners. An ailment akin to sea sickness often afflicts land travelers with weak stomachs. This is often brought on by the jarring of a railway train. Disquietude in the gastric region from this cause is always remedied by the Bitters, which also prevents and cures chills and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney trouble, constipation and biliousness.

POISONED BLOOD

Is a source of much suffering. The system should be thoroughly cleansed of all impurities, and the blood kept in a healthy condition. S. S. S. removes Chronic Sores, Ulcers, etc., purifies the blood, and builds up the general health. It is without an equal.

Ira F. Siles, of Palmer, Kan., says: "My foot and leg to my knee was a running sore for two years, and physicians said it could not be cured. After taking fifteen small bottles of S. S. S. there is not a sore on my limbs, and I have a new lease on life. I am seventy-seven years old, and have had my age renewed at least twenty years by the use of S. S. S."

BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

"The Hustlers."

What is the Spot Market?

Is a familiar business term in the old country for transactions closed by Cash on the Spot. This store is always in the "spot market." Very great concessions have been made on lots of home manufactured shoes for spot cash. For instance there are those while our competitors are asking $3.50 a pair. for them we only ask..... $2.48

They the are home manufacture. And again those Ladies shoes we sell for $3.50. A regular $5 shoe made by a home factory, and all other retail shoe houses try to get $5 for them.

Men's Oil Grain Plow Shoes

You will pay $1.25 a pair for the them in the block we sell the same thing for..... $1

We have more rubbers than all of them in town. The Goodyear Glove is our specialty. We bought before the raise. You may have
